ONE ORDER'S LOSSES.

Remarkably Complete Detailed Statement for Odd Fellows,

GIVING 653 JOHNSTOWN FAMILIES.

How 90,000 Members of the Order in This State Will Feel It.

THE LIVES LOST FOOT UP VERY FEW

The following statistics of the loss of members of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows is the late Johnstown disaster have been collected by John E. McCrickart, of Pittsburg Lodge, No. 336, L. O. O. F. Out of the total of 653 members in the lodges at Johnstown, all have been accounted for except 18, and, while it is probable that a few more may be added to the death roll, it is likely that it will not exceed more than one or two, as some of the members unaccounted for have been out of town and others reside in the district that was not flooded. The list should be full of interest to the many local memhers who help to make up the 90,000 Odd

All genuine Banner Baking Powder cans look like the above cut, except that the labels on the cans are red, white and blue, representing our national emblem. Don't use any imitation; get the old, familiar and original Banner Powder, established almost a quarter of a century ago in Pittsburg. Amateur bakers and even quite small chil-dren bake delightful cakes with it.

STRAWBERRY CARE. To the yolks of three eggs well beaten, add one cup white sugar, one-half cup butter, one-half cup sweet milk, two cups flour, having in it one measure "Banner" Baking Powder, the whites of three eggs, beaten stiff; bake in jelly-cake pans; when cold, and just before eating, place in layers, covering each one with strawberries which have previously been sugared. This cake is delicious with any kind of fresh fruit.

Hints for Tuesday. The rage of theorists to make constitutions a vehicle for the conveyance of their own crude and visionary aphorisms of government, requires to be guarded against with the most increasing vigilance.—Chief Justice Storey.

PROHIBITIONISTS having no definite no tion based on facts of observation and experience, of what a human society or a nation is, and no adequate knowledge of the nature and operation of social forces, pile device upon device, and failure upon failure. When one device fails of its intended purpose and produces an unforeseen evil they invent a new device to prevent the new evil.

THE Prohibitionist's conception of government and its functions is grotesque and false. Like every other product brought by working on a priori assumption, it is a satire on human foresight and what we call common sense.

CONSTITUTION tinkering leading to vio lations of liberty and property must finally end in anarchy and the rule of tyrants.

No PULPIT thunder will make the peo-ple in their hearts believe that to drink or sell a glass of beer is really criminal or support the execution of the laws if they did believe it.

THE loss of liberty, bold as the statement may seem, is a greater calamity than the prevalence of vice. While freedom is maintained, evil may be kept in check by at J. F. STEVENSON, Arch and Jackson streets. tained, evil may be kept in check by at least outward homage to virtue; but when it is lost there is nothing to arrest the deent to a lawless anarchy.

PROHIBITIONISM, exasperated by its in evitable failure, has heaped up penal en-actments, and at last invaded the most sacred liberties of the citizen and the sauctuary of his home.

THE Prohibitionists themselves hardly show confidence in their own moral code. They never propose to punish a man for drinking a glass of ale, though the drink ing and selling, being of the same transaction, both must be criminal or neither.

THE Prohibitionist thinks that by doing a little injustice he can do a great deal of good, and so, probably, have thought all tyrants.

POLITICAL power is a trust held for defi-nite purposes which do not include interference with your neighbor's diet or any of his personal habits any more than they include limitation of his industry or the con fiscation of his property.

IN Kansas, the State of Governor St John, the chief of prohibitionism, where the most stringent prohibition has been enacted, according to Dr. Gardner, was that the drug stores were little more than rum shops, and that their number was as-tonishing. In one town of 4,000 people, 15 of them were counted on one street. IT is the tendency of all tyranny, whather it be that of a Sultan, a crowd, a sect or a party of Prohibitionists, when it finds itself baffled, to pile on fresh severities instead of reconsidering the wisdom of its own policy. TEMPERANCE is one thing, total absti nence is another, and coercion, at which Prohibitionists aim, is a third. As temperance implies self-restraint, there can be no intemperance, in the proper sense of the term, where there is coercion. STAY with us, Liberty! Let us not stagnate! Despairing with fools, or believing with knaves, That men must be either the one or the other—. Victors or victims, oppressors or slaves!

Stay with us, cling to us, while there is life Tyrants are dumb when thy flag is un Be in the shade what thou wert in the sun-

Source of prosperity! Light of the world! THE tyrannies of the world have all rested on the plea that it was necessary for the public welfare to violate the liberty of the ndividual. BESIDES contempt of the law and per prohibition fills the country with ill blo of the community more than the employ-ment of spies and informers, to which it has been necessary and will always be necessary for prohibitionism to resort. Dickens holds up the mirror to nature in his description of

BEFORE the British Parliament consents to extreme legislation, let it, at all events, appoint a commission of inquiry to report to it on the results of prohibitory legislation in Canada and the United States. The com-missioners, if I mistake not, will find that impartial opinion on this continent pro-nounces prohibition a failure, and inclines decidedly in favor of the plan censes with stringent regulation.-Report of Goldwin Smith.

A terrible contagion of diseases, such as Scarlet Fever, Diphtheria, Smallpox, Cholera, and probably Yellow Fever, will be the result if we do not use a preventative. The above can only be prevented by using DR. BURGOON'S System Renovator and I do assure any one that nees the renovator they are using the medical properties of dandelion, Mayapple, buchu, quas-ia, cinchona, cascara sagrada, gentian, sassafras, boneset, kudney wart, stillingia, Peruvian bark, rhubarb and burdock. It acts thoroughly on the digestive organs, the liver and the kinineys. Under its operation the lost appetite returns, the bowels become open and regular, it invigorates the stomach, it makes the weak strong, it builds up the nerves and cleanses the blood of every impurity. While and after using it no disease will infect the system. I will guarantee the health of all who use it. For sale at all drag stores or by DR. BURGOON,
